WASHINGTON NEWS AND GOSSIP.

Completely Headed .- It is very evident from the toxe of our talented, amiable, courteous, entertaining, enthusiastic and knowing neighbor, that the resolution adopted by the And Know Nothings, at Harmony Hall, on Tuesday night last, for their protection against the frauds for the perpetration of which the Know Nothing majority in the councils laid the foundation, has completely nonplussed the dishonest schemers. Our so estimable neighbor first whines, then frets, next scolds, and then raves and found over it, announcing clearly to the perceptions of there of commonsense, that its friends are fairly caught in their own trap. They devised a scheme by which, as they thought, fraudolont returns might be made of the result of the approaching election in four of the seven wards of Washington. This scheme was, first, to prevent any Anti Know Nothing from atting as a judge or commissioner of election in those four wards, appointing all of them from among the oath-bound members of the order, whose obligations induced the Knew Nothing witness in the Lowell talal to swear faisely for three hours, and then that the eath he had taken as a witness conflicted with his obligation under his oath as a member of the secret political order, which | Paulding by our correspondent .- Ed. Organ. he regarded as most binding upon him. They (the Councils) having thus excluded the anti-Know Nothings from all participation inthe conduct of the election, laid on the table a resolution providing that the ballots voted judges to admit, at heretofors, in the room when they count the ballots, two respectable unchicial persons of both parties. . They thus made preparations for the commission of frauds, with impunity, in the conduct of the election. - The only recourse left to their op ponent to goord against the possibility of fraud in counting the ballots in those wardswhich men not desirous of having fraudulent returns made would themselves have guarded against-was to request their friends to vote cpea tickets in the sight of respectable citizens, who will make a record of the name of every person who votes in that way in their presence. This is the plan adopted on the suggestion, in open meeting, of one of the most determined and active Whige in Washington, it having been written out in the meeting under his eye and at his request. We thus state the origin of the resolution to show the extreme fatility of the effort of our talented, courteous, enthusiestic, knowing, entertaining, and amiable neighbor to connect the Administration with it. It was unanimously adopted by the meeting, embracing, as that did, quite as many Whigs as Democrats. It is obligatory upon no man. Yet all who are at heart opponents of the treasonable aims of the Know gladly adopt its suggestion, as embracing un-

Our talented and truthful neighbor also says | means for self defence. that in the Third Ward at the last election the ballot-box " was taken to the private residense of one of the commissioners, where the votes were counted." It forgets to add that though so taken, it was not for an instant taken out of the sight of more than one active and earnest Know Nothing, and that the votes which were in it were only counted under the eyes of such persons. Our talented and truthful neighbor further forgets to say that from the first election in the city to the present time, the battots in every ward thereof have been counted openly, in the presence of unofficial persons of both parties to the contest of the day. This is the first occasion since the settlement of Washington, when it is arranged to count them in secret; and that, toowhen one party has been for the first time purposely deprived of a representative on the hoards of election commissioners. As for our talented and truthful neighbor's high-falutin over the attack upon the integrity of tue intentions of the Know Nothing election boards, We have to say that it has been made by the Council, in providing the means of committing frauds with impunity, and by themselves (the boards) in accepting places on those boards, under circumstances involving an entire and hithertornknown violation of the rights of their fellow-citizans who are politically opposed to

to strip them as far as possible of all means of protecting their rights in the conduct of the election, and because they (the Know Nothing election boards) have come forward as willing instruments to aid in the work of stripping. their fellow-citizens of the means of protecting their rights heretefore invariably granted under similar circumstances, to any and every party in Washington city. Our confidence in the honesty and purity of American citizens in the exercise of the elective franchise, would, on ordinary cocasions. induce us to deprecate any exhibition of distrust; but when it is known that the Know Nothings have secret oaths and pledges at war with the freedom of the elective franchise, and that the purposed arrangement excluding all inspectors not Know Nothings, was deliberately made, we must be excused for saying that we prefer an opportunity to detect fraud if

It always tells the Truth-(Vide the Virginia Election.)-Our talented, amiable, courcous, entertaining, enthusiastic, agreeable and truthful neighbor has its manufactory of "cocks and bull." in full operation just now, the election being so near at hand. Three or four of the most expert and ambitious workmen in the roorback line are evidently at it in its factory with sleeves rolled up and perspiration rolling down. Were we to attempt to shoot down, one by one, a'l of its fancy whoppers, here would be no room left in the Star for he publication of any other reading matter.

The following smasher, however, is so refreshing in its unblushing mendacity, that we choose to expose its utter and entire falsehood, if but by way of exhibitin; in its true light to people of common sense, the exact character of the present efforts of our talented, amiable, courteous, entertaining, enthusiastic, knowing and truthfu! neighbor to effect the election to come off on Monday next.

SECRETARY OF THE NAVY US. COMMANDANT OF THE WASHINGTON NAVY YARD -It is stated as a fact that Mr Dobbin, Secretary of the Navy, has issued an imperial ukase (such as he is noted for) to Captain Hiram Paulding, Commandant of the Washington Navy Yard, requiring the discharge of every employee who may have the independence to vote the American ticket on Monday next; that the reply of the Commandant to this order was, that he was deter nined to discharge every man under him that did not vote his own sentiments!" Truly, a noble reply from a gallant and American soul!

The above is from a responsible source: but we can hardly believe that the Secretary of to justify himself for so doing by declaring the Navy can have issued so tyranical an or-He probably requested Commodore Paulding to act at above stated, and then received the reply attributed to Commodore

Now we have to remark that we are authorized and requested by Commodore Paulding to say, that in the course of his command of the Washington Navy Yard, nearly two and a half years, not a word has been said to him should be returned to the corporation archives by the Secretary of the Navy, or any of that and preserved as a part of the record of functionary's subordinates upon the subject of the election. They also laid on the table voting or the politics of any person or persons a proposition asking their secret-order employed in the yard; and that there is no foundation for the story embraced in the above paragraph from the Organ > thought of holding open air meetings during better than his friends had hoped. Mr. Belthe day or night will be abandened by all the Anti-Know Nothings of Washington. The rowdies and bullies kept by our talented and truthful neighbor's immediate cotorie will sarely break the peace at any such Antiexperience that they erjoy the hearty sympathy of the police on such caessions. Up to this moment the Anti-Know Nothings have exhibited most commendable forbearance, and a disposition to surrender much of their rights for the preservation of the peace. We beseech them to do nothing which may possibly lead to a surrender of the great advantage which their conduct gives them, when compared with that of the portion of their opponents kept by the cotorie of our talented and truthfui neighbor for riotous purposes.

Ordering Out the Military, &c .- The very generally circulated Know Nothing story about ordering cut the military on Monday next, has no other foundation than our neigh bor's labors to generate riots at the polls Nothing scoret political organization will on that eccasion. > Foreign Paupors .- Our talented and truthful neighbor yesterday published an article complaining that at this time the streets of Washington are more crowded with foreign paupers than ever before. The writer of it must see double, or more than double, as there never was a time when there was less street begging in our city than at present. But if his assertion is true, it morely amounts to a strong censure of the Know Nothing authorities of Washington, whose duty it is to clear the streets of any such persons.

Land Office.-The following is the amount of work done in the General Land Office during the four weeks ending May 26, 1855 : Number of letters examined and entered upen registers, 2,291; letters written, 2,242; pages of record covered therewith, 1.501; patentsengrossed 5,922, reporded 4,792, transmitted ,269, examined 12,740; entries posted in tract books, 24,621; acres of sprip issued, 10,316.

Stay at the Polis !- It is to be hoped that on Monday next, as many respected and respectable citizens of both parties as possible will remain at the polls. Our talented and truthful neighbor, by its foofish stories about ed to speak out with renewed vigor for the depositories of arms and ordering out of the military, is doing its best to generate riofs at them. If their fellow-citizens are suspicious the election. The best way to prevent them of intended foul play, and seek to guard is for many respected and respectable citi-

against it by every means left them, it is only | zens to remain constantly around the polls. because the Know Nothing Council have voted | Their presence will, doubtless, operate to preserve the peace.

> The Subterfuge.-Great (mock) indignation seems to be excited by the attempt made by the Board of Aldermen to secure the presence of an anti-Know Nothing in the room during the counting of the votes next Monday evening. niversal isthe practice, here and everywhere else, o allow both parties to be represented among the commissioners of elections that the Board of Aldermen were ashamed to allow them to be composed entirely of Know Nothings. These immaculate commissioners onsider the attempt to have any others than Know Nothings present as a slur upon their integrity-as an intimation that they, perhaps, would count and report the votes more fairly in the preserce of their opponents than in secret conclave. They have guessed right

As the move was first made in the Board by DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BIT a Know Nothing Alderman and supported by Know Nothing votes to some extent, it must be presumed that the motion and vote arose from mere considerations of common decency, and a respect for the Know Nothing party. But the community have other reasons for such a move. They know that that the only offset of the presence of an Anti Know Nothing would be to detect fraud if attempted, and that no one of common-sense would object to his presence, except for the purpose of securing the opporturity of committing a fraud with impunity. We have it upon excellent authority that, when "men seek darkness rather than light" it is "because their deeds are evit." Men do not seek to conceal their virtuous and magnanimous actions-concealment is for quite another purpose.

It is useless to talk, and be indignant about the integrity of men, with such premonitory indicationsupon them. They will not be trusted and do not deserve confidence, and the open ticket will be resorted to to guard against the frauds which seem to be deliberately intended. The driveling about the administration seeking to control the votes of clerks, and the ranting about the integrity of the commissioners, will not prevent the citizens of Washington from looking after their rights. Men who intend to act honestly in public matters, have no objection that the public hall inspect their doings.

THE VIRGINIA ELECTION .- The Richmond Enquirer of yesterday has returns from 13 ounties, and makes Mr. Wise's majority so far, 10,575. It says his majority in the State will be about 11,000, as the strong democratic counties of Scott and Lee are among those not heard from. The Dispatch makes the major. ity only 9,295, and 13 counties to be heard from which gave Pierce 910 majority. The Democratic majority in the Legislature will be over 40.
